

CAMPAIGN FOR FAIR FOOD DRAWING CONTEST!

Winners' drawings to be distributed nationally on new Campaign for Fair Food postcard!

Farmworkers across the country pick the fruits and vegetables we need to stay healthy. And though they help put food on millions of tables across the country, most farmworkers don't earn enough to support their own families, and many times they are treated unfairly at work in the fields. Through the Campaign for Fair Food, farmworkers and their supporters across the country are working together to create a more just food system in which farmworkers are respected and treated fairly.

To highlight the connection between young people and farmworkers, the Coalition of Immokalee Workers announces the first-ever Campaign for Fair Food drawing contest! To enter, use your imagination to draw what "Fair Food" means to you, and show how you can work together with farmworkers to make a fairer world for the people who pick our fruits and vegetables.

Farmworkers in Immokalee will select one winner from each of four age groups:

- Pre-K - 2nd grade
- 3rd grade - 5th grade
- 6th grade - 8th grade
- High School

Winners' drawings will be featured on the front of new Campaign for Fair Food postcards, which will be distributed around the country. Each winner will also receive a framed copy of their drawing signed by members of the Immokalee farmworker community.

Submissions will be accepted from now until April 1, 2010. Drawings may be created in any medium: crayon, colored pencil, marker, etc. There is no size requirement.

A curriculum with ideas to incorporate information about farmworkers and the Campaign for Fair Food into lesson plans is included in this packet. To request a DVD and other materials for use with the curriculum, or with any questions, contact drawingcontest@ciw-online.org.
