

Coalition of Immokalee Workers
Community Support Position

The Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW), a worker-led human rights organization based in Immokalee, Florida, is hiring a full-time staff member to work in our community center in Immokalee. CIW is seeking a passionate, driven individual, committed to following the leadership of farmworkers and helping to build a movement that has been internationally recognized for its impact in combatting long-standing human rights abuses in the agriculture industry from wage theft and dangerous working conditions to sexual assault and forced labor.

This staff member's primary responsibility would be supporting the CIW's grassroots community organizing efforts.

Responsibilities will include:

- Support with providing transportation to the community
 - Note: CIW holds regular meetings on Wednesdays at 7pm and Sundays at 3pm, and would need consistent support for these events
- Administration, including data recording
- Childcare during Women's Group and Comite Central (Sundays)
- Cooperativa
- Answering phone
- Support with interpretation during presentations
- Office cleaning and maintenance

Requirements for the position:

- Driver's license
- Flexible availability
- English, Spanish, ideally Creole
