JOB ANNOUNCEMENT: COALITION OF IMMOKALEE WORKERS COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR

The Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW), an award-winning worker-led human rights organization based in Immokalee, Florida, is hiring Campaign Coordinators to help advance its Campaign for Fair Food. The position is based out of Immokalee, FL.

The Community Engagement Coordinator works with a dynamic multi-lingual team of farmworker leaders to coordinate the organization's community engagement and organizing efforts, building a strong base of worker leadership at the foundation of the CIW's national and international human rights work.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support with providing transportation support to the community
 - CIW holding regular meetings on Wednesday at 7pm and Sunday at 3pm, and would need consistent support for these events
- Administration and data recording
- Childcare during Women's Group and Comite Central (Sunday)
- Assist with the maintenance and coordination of the CIW's Co-Op
- Managing the Community Center phone lines
- Support with translation during presentations, visits, and delegations
- Office maintenance

Requirements for the position:

- Driver's License
- Flexible availability
- English, Spanish
- Proficiency in Haitian Creole is a plus

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

This is a full-time position, sometimes including weekend hours, with a fair salary based on founding principles of the CIW, and very generous health care benefits, including dental. Further details upon inquiry.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required:

- Deep commitment to social and economic justice and to building solidarity with worker-led movements
- Bilingual in Spanish and English
- Excellent verbal communication skills, including public speaking
- Ability to work flexible hours
- Excellent sense of humor

CIW staff members work together as a collective, following the lead of the farmworker community and striving to support and implement farmworkers' vision for a respectful and safe work environment. As such, we welcome applicants with a diversity of skills – from educating and mobilizing different constituencies and communications and fundraising, to photography and web and design skills.

A commitment of at least two years is required. Even if you do not have extensive experience in every area of work detailed above, if you have an interest in being part of this historic, farmworker-led movement to build a modern, humane food system, please apply!

ABOUT THE COALITION OF IMMOKALEE WORKERS

The CIW is a Presidential Medal-winning, worker-led human rights organization based in Immokalee, Florida, recognized for its impact in combatting long-standing human rights abuses in the agricultural industry from wage theft and dangerous working conditions to sexual assault and forced labor. The CIW's groundbreaking work — including the development of the Fair Food Program, launched in 2011 —has not only led the charge in remedying egregious human rights violations in agriculture, it has created an entirely new, proven path to prevention, to actually eradicating those abuses altogether.
